An architectural home with connection to outdoors

Our Oslo 29 display at Crownlea estate is a masterclass in minimalist design, synonymous of an urban home. With its contemporary form and considered layout, this home creates a harmonious rhythm between modernity and comfort. This display showcases refined functional spaces with optional floorplan features including: a rear-flip layout, expansive raked ceiling and home theatre. The façade's clean architectural lines are carried through to the interiors, where tactile textures, warm timber and hints of nature soften a monochrome base palette.
